On 1/9/12 officers responded to 3005 Teak Ln. in reference to an unarmed robbery. Upon arrival the victim stated that he was walking at the above listed location when he was approached by an unknown black four door vehicle, occupied by two black males. The vehicle pulled up next to the victim and the suspect sitting in the front passenger seat, started to talk to the victim about a party and asked him if he knew a male named "Orlando". The victim stated that he did not know a male by that name. At this time the Suspect stated to the victim, "give up the coat". The victim looked at the suspect and a second demand was made for his coat. The victim complied with his demands and handed over the coat. The vehicle then fled towards Trinity Ln. No weapons were displayed. There were no injuries in the incident and Bowie C.I.D. was notified.
