

Hockey Development Coaching Staff

The Bowie Ice Arena is proud to announce the coaching staff for the summer Hockey Development Camp. These coaches possess strong hockey knowledge and the desire to bring your skater to the next level of hockey. The camp is directed by Bowie Hockey Club's Head Coach Randy Richardson. Coach Randy is a level 5 certified coach with 6 years of coaching experience. Coach Richardson was the head coach of the 2009-10 BHC U18AA team.

Included in this brochure is information on camp coaches. Additional coaches may be added.

Dean Melanson

Dean is a former NHL player who was drafted by the Buffalo Sabres in 1992. He played for the Rochester Americans prior to playing with the Sabres. He also played for the Washington Capitals during the 2001-02 season. He played hockey over seas and has recently retired. He works as a strength and conditioning coach as well as an on ice skills coach for hockey players of all ages and is eager to get more involved with youth hockey in the Metropolitan area. Coach Melanson was head coach of the 2009-10 BHC U16AA team. Coach Melanson is also available for private lessons.
