Required Communications

- Auditors' Responsibility Under Generally Accepted Auditing Standards:
 - The financial statements are the responsibility of management. Our audit was performed for the purpose of forming opinions as to whether the Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP.

Required Communications

- Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices
 - Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. Significant accounting policies are disclosed in the Summary of Significant Accounting Policies in Note 1 of the Financial Statements.

- The preparation of the Financial Statements requires that certain estimates and judgments be made by management. These judgments and estimates include:
 - Depreciable lives of capital assets
 - Pension liability and other post-employment benefits liability are based on computations performed by outside specialists.

- We concluded that management has a reasonable basis for significant judgments and estimates that impact the Financial Statements.
- No sensitive Financial Statement disclosures.

- Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit
 - No significant difficulties were encountered during the audit.
- Disagreements with Management
 - There were no disagreements with management on financial accounting and reporting matters, auditing procedures, or other matters.
- Representations from Management
 - The representation letter was signed by management.

- Consultations with Other Accountants
 - We were informed by management that they made no consultations on the applications of GAAP and GAAS.
- Significant Issues Discussed with Management Prior to Retention
 - There were no significant issues discussed with management prior to retention as the auditors.
- Other Significant Findings or Issues
 - There were no additional findings or issues not previously discussed.

- Uncorrected misstatements There were no uncorrected misstatements identified.
- Corrected misstatements There were no material misstatements detected as a result of audit procedures, either individually or in the aggregate, to the financial statements taken as a whole.

- Other Information in Documents Containing Audited Financial Statements
 - We do not express an opinion on required supplemental information or supplemental information.

Thank you to the City staff for their assistance during the engagement!
