I. PURPOSE

The primary function of the Honor Guard Unit is to perform at occasions where it’s very presence would bring credit to law enforcement, this Department and those we serve. This is particularly true in honoring active Police Officers who are killed in the line-of-duty, and retired Police Officers of this Department, by conducting military style funeral services. The Honor Guard may also perform at functions, to include, but not be limited to the following:

1. Department funerals
2. Allied agency funerals
3. Special occasions, such as Police Officers Memorial Day, Candlelight Vigil, Fallen Heroes Day, etc.
4. Dignitary events
5. Department events (e.g., promotions, graduations, etc.)
6. Community events (e.g., parades, dedications, etc.)
7. Any other event as requested by the Chief of Police

II. MISSION STATEMENT

It shall be the mission of the Bowie Police Department’s Honor Guard to professionally represent the City of Bowie, the Department, those we serve, and to those that served before us, at functions as authorized by the Chief of Police.

III. DEFINITIONS

1. Honor Guard – consists of no less than four (4) officers, with at least one officer designated as the detail coordinator and that decision can be made by the Investigative Services Commander.
2. Honor Guard Members – Members of the Bowie Police Department so selected for the Honor Guard who aspire for professionalism in all aspects of the operation and maintain the highest standards of integrity.

3. Color Guard – consists of no less than three (3) officers, nor no more than six (6). At all times, when in formation, at least one rifle will be carried. The flag bearers may carry, in listed order, the National Flag, Maryland State Flag, and City of Bowie Flag.

4. Casket Watch – consists of at least six (6) officers. These members will perform casket watch and changing of the casket guards.

5. Body Bearers – Consists of at least six (6) officers. This detail will serve as the official body bearers at all departmental funerals and will be in complete control of the casket from the first time the body is moved, to the completion of the burial services. They will also be responsible for folding the flag that draped the casket and present it to the Chief of Police who in turn, shall present it to the designated survivor. When other non-ceremonial body bearers are utilized, this unit will serve and render honors as honorary body bearers. They shall walk and be located behind the casket body bearers.

6. Out-of-Agency Representation – consisting of at least two (2) members or more.

7. Detail Commander – The person designated by the Honor Guard Commander who shall be responsible for the overall function of the Honor Guard at a particular event in the absence of the Honor Guard Commander.

IV. AUTHORIZED EVENT PARTICIPATION

The Honor Guard Unit will participate in the following details/events at the direction of the Honor Guard Commander, pursuant to the authorization from the Deputy Chief of Police, or from the Office of the Chief of Police. e. Ensure Department vehicles used are maintained in a professional manner before attending an event/detail.

VI. DETAIL/EVENT COORDINATION

1. In order to effectively and efficiently schedule and deploy Honor Guard personnel to various details/events, the following procedures have been established and will be adhered to unless situations dictate otherwise. It is important to note that some details, such as funerals, occur with very little notice. As such, the Honor Guard Commander may deviate from said procedures in order to accommodate deployments.

a. Upon receiving a request for the Bowie Police Department Honor Guard participation at a detail/event, the Honor Guard Commander will notify the Deputy Chief and Chief of Police. This notification will include the date, time and location of the detail/event.
b. Upon receiving the information the Commander will forward the information to each Honor Guard member. Each member will advise of their availability to be detailed to the event.
c. Once the Honor Guard Commander has received feedback from the members, the Commander will devise an Operations Order for member participation in the event.

2. Attendances to details/events – Honor Guard members, contacted by the Honor Guard Commander for a detail/event, are expected to make every effort to make themselves available for the detail/event.

a. Members assigned to Honor Guard details/events will be prompt in attendance to the designated reporting times and locations. Any absence or lateness in reporting for a detail/event will be documented.
b. If any Honor Guard member assigned to attend an Honor Guard detail/event determines that they are unable to perform their duties and are unable to attend the assigned detail, will immediately notify the Honor Guard Commander or Detail Commander.
c. A continuous pattern of failing to attend Honor Guard functions or details without just cause, by any Honor Guard member, will be cause for removal from the Honor Guard Unit.
3. Honor Guard members receiving requests for the Unit's participation shall forward that information to the Honor Guard Commander, in writing, to include the following:
   a. Date, time and location of the event.
   b. Length of the event.
   c. Type of event.
   d. Services requested.
   e. Contact person, address and telephone number.
   f. Approximate number of persons expected to attend the event.
   g. The Honor Guard Commander will maintain a record of all appearances made by the Unit.

VII. SELECTION PROCESS

1. Qualifications
   a. Officers must commit to a minimum of two years as an Honor Guard member.
   b. Must have an excellent uniform appearance and professional demeanor.
   c. Must be capable of working as a team.
   d. Must be willing to attend various training events and special details on short notice.
   e. Must be willing to withstand all types of climate conditions.

2. Members of the Bowie Police Department wishing to be considered for the Honor Guard Unit must submit a written request through their supervisor, to the Honor Guard Commander. All candidates will be informed in writing, of the outcome of their application process.

VIII. UNIFORMS AND EQUIPMENT

1. All members of the Honor Guard will be issued specialized uniforms and equipment. It shall be the responsibility of the individual member to ensure all equipment is maintained in perfect condition. The Honor Guard Uniform (Class A) will be the only uniform worn by the Honor Guard member during an approved function. All members of an Honor Guard detail will wear the Honor Guard uniform and accouterments in an identical manner for uniformity purposes.

2. Should a uniform item or piece of equipment become worn or broken, it shall be the responsibility of the individual member to immediately report the same to the Honor Guard Commander, via Inter-departmental Memorandum, for replacement or repair. Due to the nature of Honor Guard details, it shall be the responsibility of the individual member to ensure a clean uniform is ready on standby at all times. Oftentimes, less than a days notice is given prior to an Honor Guard detail.

3. All vehicles utilized for a detail/event shall be maintained in the best possible condition. All vehicles will be washed and dried prior to each detail. Simply “spraying off” the vehicle will not be acceptable. It shall be the responsibility of each Honor Guard member driving a department vehicle to ensure cleanliness of said vehicle.

IX. TRAINING

In order to professionally represent the Bowie Police Department at various details and events, it shall be imperative that all Honor Guard members routinely take part in scheduled Honor Guard practice/training sessions. The following procedures will be adhered to by all Honor Guard members unless prior approval is granted by the Honor Guard Commander.

1. Each Honor Guard member may be required to attend monthly training sessions to include the annual regional training.
2. The Honor Guard Commander will schedule training sessions and track attendance to ensure each member has received the required training each year.
3. The Honor Guard Commander will notify members of upcoming training dates, times and locations.
4. The scheduling of the training will be decided by the Honor Guard Commander based on needs and manpower availability of the members.
5. Each Honor Guard member will be responsible for attending training sessions as required. This may be accomplished by being detailed from their regular duty assignment, with approval of their supervisor, or attending on their time.

X. TRAINING SESSIONS

1. The Honor Guard Commander, or his designee, will conduct the training session.
2. In the absence of the Honor Guard Commander, it will be the responsibility of the Detail Commander to forward the list of attendees of each training session to the Honor Guard Commander.
3. Training sessions will normally be held at the Bowie Police Department. If there is a change in location, the Honor Guard Commander will notify all members.
4. Each training session will consist of repetitive instruction on marching in formation, the movements required in the presentation of flags and rifles, casket watches, casket flag folding, and/or other related issues.
5. During each training session, administrative related tasks will be accomplished. This typically includes critiquing previously attended details and announcing future events.
6. The Detail Commander will ensure proper instruction is provided to the members and the training session is operated in an orderly fashion.
7. A continuous pattern of failing to attend training as required without the approval of the Honor Guard Commander, by any member of the Unit, will be cause for removal from the Honor Guard Unit, and/or other disciplinary measures.
8. Other agencies may participate in the monthly training sessions.

XI. BENEFITS

1. Additional benefits will be provided as a result of becoming a member of the Honor Guard Unit to those members who participate in three events a year. Officers may receive compensatory time for training and performing as a course of their duty. Expenses related to travel or accommodations paid out by members of the Unit when performing, will be paid by the member and reimbursed by the Department.
2. All members of the Honor Guard Unit will show respect to one another, to persons in attendance, and most importantly, those being honored. Members of the Unit, when at a ceremony or function, will remain in full uniform prior to, during and after any service, when in full view of the public.
3. Any member found to bring disrespect to the Bowie Police Department, the Honor Guard Unit, those being honored, or to the function attended, will be removed from the Unit and dealt with, according to policies and procedures of the Bowie Police Department.
