

COVID-19 NUMBERS

Daily COVID-19 Update for Wednesday, October 6, 2021

Case rates are going down in Prince George’s County and Maryland but concerns about the rising number of cases in children, has caused the County to extend its existing indoor mask mandate to children age 2 to 5 to better protect this age group from exposure.

Prince George’s County Public Schools track the cases in its schools. You can view the list of schools that have reported COVID cases on their website.
