

Theft of delivered packages

LOCATION: City of Bowie

LOCATION TYPE: Residential

DATE & TIME OF INCIDENT: February 6, 2013

SYNOPSIS OF INCIDENT: During the months of December 2012 and January 2013, the City of Bowie had a spike in thefts of delivered packages to residents. Based on that data, Bowie CID and DRT sections conducted a joint operation in the affected areas. On February 6, 2013 a vehicle was observed driving around the Rockledge and Overbrook sections of Bowie looking at homes, that vehicle was stopped and numerous packages that had various Bowie addresses were observed in the back seat of the vehicle. Further investigation and interviews led to a Greenbelt home and an additional vehicle being searched. Based on this investigation, several other packages were recovered with addresses throughout Prince George's County. P.G. County Detectives were notified and are working together with the Bowie Police. Both suspects were charged with numerous counts of theft. Investigators are continuing to locate other victims.
