Hockey Development Camp Coaching Staff

Bowie Ice Arena is proud to announce the coaching staff for the summer Hockey Development Camps. These coaches possess strong hockey knowledge and the desire to bring your skater to the next level of hockey. Bowie Ice Arena reserves the right to change the coaching staff and/or add special guest coaches.

DEAN MELANSON

Coach Melanson is a former NHL player who was drafted by the Buffalo Sabres in 1992. He played for the Rochester Americans prior to playing with the Sabres. He also played for the Washington Capitals during the 2001-02 season. He played over seas and is now retired. He also works as an instructor with Craig Laughlin's Network Hockey Development Program during the summer months helping players continue their development during the off-season. He currently coaches with the Carolina Jr. Hurricanes in North Carolina where he lives with his family.

Pro Ambitions is once again hosting camps at the facility. These camps are run by a private company that rents the facility. For more information or to register visit www.proambitions.com. The Pro Ambitions camps are scheduled for the weeks of July 23 and July 30.

CLARK MOWREY

Clark played hockey for the Bowie Hockey Club until age 14. He also played for the Little Caps and the Junior Caps until age 18. He went on to play at Ridley College in Ontario. Clark has been instrumental with the Bowie Hockey Club's grass roots program coaching at the Mite recreational and Squirt travel level and helping with the BHC instructional program. During the 2015-16 season, he coached a successful BHC Peewee AA team that finished in 1st Place in the CBHL Peewee National division and advanced to the SE District Tournament in South Carolina. Over the last two seasons Coach Clark has coached with the Washington Little Caps Bantam Minor and Major teams skating out of Kettler Capitals Ice Plex in Virginia. Coach Clark resides in Bowie, MD with his wife and three kids.

DRY-LAND TRAINING

Certified strength and conditioning staff will introduce fun and effective drills to help players learn and improve multi-directional movement skills, multi-directional speed, agility, balance, coordination, rhythm and body awareness. These exercises will promote strength and flexibility and teach players the importance of life long fitness.
